3. HOW TO PLAY

Power Points

A player's ability is indicated on the screen by the number of Power Points. These Points can be distributed to three components: Punch, Speed, and Stamina.

You have only 9 Power Points at the beginning of the game. Enter the Training mode to increase your player's power. As you gain Power Points, enter the Ranking Tournament and Championship Bouts, or compete against your friends.

Password

At the end of each bout your new Password will appear at the bottom right hand corner of the screen. Keep this 10-digit "word" in your notes to record your statistics and Power Points accumulated during training and bouts. Use it to start a new game in the condition where you left off. Your Password is unique and stays with you no matter what system you are playing on, yours or a friend's!

Getting Started

There are 6 modes of play in RING KING, but remember to enter Training to increase your ability and power points before you can become a serious contender. Let's practice!

At the start of the game, your Statistics Screen appears. To enter your name, press the Control Pad left and right to select each letter, then press the Control Pad up or down to enter each letter. Then press the A button. Enter your Password the same way, then press the B button. (Note: If you don't use your Password, press the B button after entering your name.)

Press the START button and enter into the Construction Screen. Divide your Power Points between Punch, Speed, and Stamina by using the Control Pad.

Press the START button to begin the bout.

Press the A and B buttons simultaneously as fast as you can. This will restore your power.

At Fight Finish

The winner is announced and any changes to your win/loss record and Password are displayed. Press the START button to begin the next bout.

Punches

Jab: Press the A button for a straight punch.

Body Blow: Face your opponent horizontally. Then press the B button to squat while pressing the A button to punch.

Hook: Face your opponent vertically. Then press the Control Pad in the direction of your opponent while pressing the A button to punch.

Uppercut: Face your opponent horizontally. Then press the Control Pad in the direction of your opponent while pressing the A button to punch.

Defense Techniques

Your power decreases when you swing wide and miss, or you are hit by your opponent. A good defense maximizes your power. Avoid blows by pressing the B button to guard, squat, dodge, and so on.

Restoring Your Power

Restore your power in a Clinch. Get closer and grapple with each other. Both boxers will regain a small amount of power.

When knocked down, press the A and B buttons simultaneously as fast as you can to regain power.

Watch 1 Mode

This mode allows you to develop your strategy by watching your computer opponents fight each other in Tournament matches.

Watch 2 Mode

You have 99 Power Points to distribute between 5 matches. Press the B button to move between the 5 matches. Then press the SELECT button to set up the second player the same way.

Press the START button to begin the Tournament.

4. PLAYING MODES

As we mentioned, there are six modes in this game, including the Training mode. The procedure for game play is nearly the same as in the Training mode, but a few modes have different methods of recording.

2-Player VS Mode

There are 5 fights between 2 boxers and each has 5 rounds. Players are able to participate using accumulated Power Points by entering their Password. The first player enters his name and Password. Then, press the SELECT button to enter the second player's.

Ranking Mode

Challenge first-ranked to fifth-ranked boxers in Rookie, US, and World Divisions. The rank you achieve is recorded in your statistics. Using the Password you receive at the end of each bout allows you to start at the rank where you left off.

Ranking Screen: Select your opponent by pressing the Control Pad, then advance to the next screen by pressing the START button.

Tournament Mode

Up to 8 players can participate in the Tournament mode. When the Tournament Board is displayed on the screen, decide the number of players by pressing the SELECT button, then record the names and Passwords of each participant by pressing the START button.

5. PLAYING HINTS

Special Punches

Try these punches by using good footwork when you have a high number of Power Points.

Spin Hook: Makes your opponent spin like a top. Harder punches make faster spins.

Strong Jab: Sends your opponent flying to the ropes.

Flying Uppercut: Makes your opponent fly high.

Super Flying Uppercut: Sends your opponent flying right out of the ring.

To Be a Champion

Training Hint 1: Use the ropes and corners to your advantage.

Training Hint 2: Use good footwork.

Training Hint 3: Use flurries of punches, rather than one punch at a time.

Training Hint 4: Distribute your Power Points carefully.
